

THE BEST PLACE TO play, BROUGHT TO YOU BY THE BEST PLACE TO STAY.

What could be better than a round of golf at one of Myrtle Beach's most renowned courses? Well, many rounds of golf, for starters. Top it off with accommodators at Kingston Plantation or the Hilton Myrtle Beach Resort, two of the area's ultimate oceanfront golf and conference destinations, and you have a getaway that's tough to beat.

First up, Arcadian Shores Golf Club. Created by leading designer Rees Jones, this par-72 championship course is the perfect place for groups, golf buddies and families to come together.

This Grand Strand favorite expertly blends natural beauty and challenges for every level of player.

Players will encounter enticing lakes, deviously-placed bunkers, tree-lined fairways and Tifton Bermuda greens. Tournament players, Golf Magazine and Golf Digest have all sung the praises of this venerable course.

Of course, we feature a comfortable clubhouse, with a fully-stocked pro shop and Club Grill. Players can warm up on the driving range and large putting green. And, when good isn't quite good enough, we offer professional instruction.

SCHOOLS IN, scores DOWN.

Kingston Plantation is the perfect place to polish your game thanks to the Resort Golf Academy at Arcadian Shores.

The Arcadian Shores team of PGA certified teaching professionals offer a variety of instructional programs customized to every age and skill level.

The Academy features a 4:1 student-teacher ratio in addition to boasting state-of-the-art video instruction. One-hour, half-day, full-day and multi-day sessions are available.

Arcadian Shores is also the perfect place for your on-site tournament event to add a perfect and convenient touch to your group's next meeting.

Everything.
UNDER THE SUN.

Kingston Plantation offers an incredible 900-plus luxurious guest accommodations in many different forms. You can choose the 255-all-suite oceanfront Embassy Suites Hotel with breathtaking views and all the comforts of home, including a daily complimentary breakfast and cocktail reception. Kingston also has three oceanfront condominiums, one- and two-bedroom lodges sitting alongside a freshwater lake, and spacious villas with wooded views – perfect for multiple guests or family travelers.

Adjacent to Kingston is the newly-renovated Hilton Myrtle Beach Resort, with 385 ocean view rooms, superb amenities, two dining options, a pool and more.

So if you're coming to Myrtle Beach to play golf (and who isn't?), Kingston Plantation offers the best places to stay and play. All guests can use Kingston's golf concierge to make preferred tee times at Arcadian Shores, which sits behind Kingston, just north of the Restaurant Row area in the heart of the Grand Strand.

Great accommodations, fabulous golf and the beach – this truly is the ultimate golf location.
