KINGSTON PLANTATION'S GOLF TOURNAMENT NETS $10,000 Horry County Children's Shelter receives proceeds totaling $55,000 over six years

MYRTLE BEACH, S.C. – (September 2006) – Kingston Plantation's 6th Annual Golf Challenge was held Sept. 13, at Arcadian Shores Golf Club. A $10,000 check was presented to Ed Jones, executive director of the Horry County Children's Shelter. Over the six years the tournament has been held, $55,000 has been donated to the shelter to assist with operations.

"We had some truly dedicated golfers this year since we started in the rain," says Sabena Robinson, director of sales and marketing for Kingston Plantation and tournament director. "Everyone played despite the weather, and we are very pleased to provide this financial support for the Children's Shelter."

The tournament includes 18 holes of golf and a reception at Hilton Myrtle Beach Resort. Just about everyone who played in the tournament won additional prizes through a raffle held during the reception. Prizes include cruises, hotel stays at Embassy Suites or Hilton hotels across the country and gift certificates to a variety of stores and restaurants in Myrtle Beach.

The Horry County Shelter is a 28-bed facility that provides temporary safety and security for abused, neglected, or abandoned children, ages infant to 18. This is a critical need in the Myrtle Beach community, and the Shelter is supported solely by donations.

Located in the heart of the famed Grand Strand in Myrtle Beach, Kingston Plantation is one of the largest and most comprehensive oceanfront resorts on the East Coast. In addition to the Embassy Suites, the 145-acre property offers more than 1,400 choices in accommodations including the 385-room Hilton Myrtle Beach Resort, private villas, townhomes and condominiums. Guests enjoy access to extensive recreational and meeting facilities including a 50,000 square-foot Sport & Health Club with indoor and outdoor pools, nine lit tennis courts, pro shop and state-of-the-art fitness equipment; Splash!, an oceanfront waterpark and lazy river; 72-par Rees Jones-designed Arcadian Shores Golf Course; and a host of seasonal activities for adults and children.
